“ Delivering Talent”

SRI deliver a unique benefit to partner clients. We are neither a search and selection company nor a standard recruitment provider. SRI deliver resource and consulting solutions to steady state environments consultancy assignments and change initiatives bridging the gap between technical and business experience requirements.

We also specialise in the provision of high profile senior management who are used to dealing with major corporate change programmes spanning entire business sectors as well as many continents.

Our success is built around understanding what our partner clients needs are then delivering the required results, in essence we are flexible in the solutions we provide yet rigid in the delivery of results.

Our goal is to offer clients painless results driven solutions to their human capital requirements.

Our Value Proposition

- SRI deliver resource and consultancy solutions to major programs in Transformation, Integration, Business Process, Technology, Change Management , Project & Programme Management and Program Office
- SRI operate with a hybrid resource model that defines our service offering. The model enables the delivery of content experts in business process, technology, steady state environments or consultancy assignments offering clients an overall solution.
- SRI provide solutions on a contract, permanent and interim basis. and bespoke consultancy solutions tailored to our clients requirements. We deliver team builds, team moves or single strategic hires.
- SRI provide resource solutions tailored specifically to each clients needs acting as a strategic partner rather than a recruitment option to ensure client partners achieve optimum performance
- SRI deliver strategic resource solutions by providing talent in the form of human capital to ensure our clients short, medium and long term goals are achieved.
- SRI can also act as your vehicle to gain extra revenues from short or long term bench positions.
